Old Testament scholars at the 26th Annual Meeting formed three study groups for projected topics, studies and news. The areas and their coordinators are:

1. Archaeological and Historical Problems
Mr. Wilbur Fields, Ozark Bible College
2. Textual and Exegetical Problems
Dr. Bruce K. Waltke and Dr. Donald R. Glenn,
Dallas Theological Seminary
3. Theological and Ethical Problems
Dr. Walter C. Kaiser, Jr.,
Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

If you wish to participate in one of these groups, please contact its coordinator.

New Testament scholarship at the 26th Annual Meeting focussed attention on a number of projects. Among these are

1. A concordance of the gospels with symbols to indicate paralleled occurrences
2. Updating R. C. Trench SYNONYMS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT
3. A one-volume translation of the APOSTOLIC FATHERS
4. The resurrection of Jesus
5. Redaction criticism of the gospels
6. An advanced Greek grammar
7. New Testament theology

Write Dr. Robert H. Gundry, Westmont College, Santa Barbara, California 93108, if you wish to participate in any of these groups.

In keeping with the national bi-centennial celebrations, the 1976 Meeting (28th annual) will be held on the campus of Eastern Baptist Seminary in Philadelphia with "Our Christian Heritage" as its theme.
