PROGRAMS OF FORTHCOMING MEETINGS

E. T. S. vice-president and program committee chairman Gilbert H. Johnson, Nyack Missionary College, Nyack, N. Y., will be happy to receive suggestions concerning papers and other matters for the tenth annual meeting. This is being planned for the holidays between Christmas and New Year's, at Nyack.

Dr. Merrill C. Tenney of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., has been elected chairman of the joint planning committee between E. T. S. and the American Scientific Affiliation. He will appreciate receiving suggestions relative to the third biennial joint meeting of the two societies, which is scheduled for June, 1959, in the Chicago area.

Arising out of a paper by Robert A. Golter, reference librarian at Wheaton College, on "Suggestions for Interlibrary Cooperation," a committee of the Mid-Western Section consisting of J. Barton Payne, Martin J. Wyngaarden, and Mr. Golter was appointed to pursue further the possibilities of cooperation between libraries of evangelical institutions.
