

MINUTES OF THE TWELFTH ANNUAL MEETING

Despite the snow on the ground, and the conversion of the Beverly Farms R.R. station into a store(!) the members and friends of E.T.S. found a warm welcome, as their trains were met by the faculty and students of Gordon Divinity School, Mass., the morning of Dec. 27, 1960. Dean Burton Goddard had made provision for everything that was needed, from meal tickets and floor plans of dormitories, to blackboards and thumb tacks for posters. A delicious lunch, served at the Christian Endeavor Church by its gracious ladies, added the final touch for an auspicious opening of the 12th annual meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society.

President Allan A. MacRae called the first session to order at 1:00 p.m. in the Gordon chapel. Earl S. Kalland led in the opening devotional service, with thoughts from Deut. 6:5. Greetings from the host institution were extended by Dr. Layman Ketcham, the director of Gordon's development program, in the absence of President Forrester. Our program, as previously printed, was then adopted as the docket of the meeting, with the following changes: Tuesday, 4:30 p.m., addition of a paper which had been inadvertently omitted: "Archaeology and the Book of Isaiah," by Stanley M. Horton of Central Bible Institute, Springfield, Mo.; 7:30 p.m., just before Dr. Free's illustrated lecture, a new, color film of the work of the Israel-American Institute of Biblical Studies, by G. Douglas Young of Trinity Seminary, Chicago. Wednesday afternoon, 2:30 p.m., Laird Harris's paper, formerly scheduled for 4:30 Tuesday; and 3:15 p.m., a new paper, "The Dead Sea Community and the Essenes," by Martin J. Wyngaarden of Calvin Seminary, in place of the papers by William Studer and Preson Phillips, who had found it impossible to attend. The program of scholarly papers then followed according to the docket.

Tuesday's 3:00 p.m. business session opened with the singing of "A Mighty Fortress is our God." The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as circulated, after which were received the reports of the president, secretary, treasurer, Membership Committee, and the Committee on Program and Arrangements (see summaries below). The treasurer's report, a preliminary one, was referred to the Executive Committee for final action, pending word from the appointed auditors, Mr. Wm. R. L. McLatchie and Mr. Louis S. Hale of Tennessee Temple Schools. Communications from various members who were unable to attend, and from our sister organizations, the Tyndale Fellowship for Biblical Research, in England, and the Tyndale Fellowship of Australia, were read by the secretary. A matter of major significance was the distribution and reading of the report of the special committee, which had been authorized at the previous annual meeting, on the promotion of the work of E.T.S. during the next five years, 1961-1965. Its 22 recommendations (see below) were referred to the Executive Committee and to the Society as a whole for study and for action in the sessions that would follow. Nominations were then opened for the five-man nominating committee; and, after the names of Gilbert Johnson, Martin Wyngaarden, Samuel Schultz, Joseph Free, and Wilbur Wallis had been proposed, the Society voted to close the nominations and the secretary was instructed to cast a white ballot for the nominees. President MacRae announced the appointment of Roger Nicole and Earle Ellis to serve as the Committee on Resolutions. The docket of afternoon papers was then resumed, closing prayer being offered by John Wenger.

The annual E.T.S. banquet, moderated by Vice-president R. Laird Harris, maintained the Society's tradition of consecrated scholarship, as expressed in Samuel Schultz's devotional on Eph. 5:16 "Redeeming the time," and in Dr. MacRae's presidential address, "Challenges of Evangelical Scholarship," while combined with hearty Christian fellowship. The faculties of 25 different evangelical institutions of higher learning were found to be represented around the tables and were greeted by President James Forrester of Gordon. Wheaton's record generosity of the preceding year came within 9¢ of being topped by Gordon's remarkable price of only 99¢ (!); and a round of applause was extended to the ladies of the Christian Endeavor Church for their willing service. E.T.S. returned to the Gordon chapel for the evening session of pictures, and for the next day's meetings.

Wednesday morning's devotions commenced with the singing of "When I survey the Wondrous Cross," and George Knight based his meditation on the verities of II Tim. 3:16. The 10:45 panel on "Recent Trends in Theological Study," moderated by David Kerr, found itself pressed for time; and, after presentations by Earle Ellis on N. T. Pauline studies and Barton Payne on O. T. theologies, John Luchies graciously excused himself from evaluating current thought on the doctrine of our Lord's virgin birth (though E.T.S. insists on Dr. Luchies' reappearance at the earliest opportunity!). The session closed with prayer by Arthur Rupprecht.

The afternoon business session of Dec. 28, 1960, opened with prayer by Lloyd Kalland. Reports on the activities of the regional sections for 1960 were presented (see below), together with the announcements of their future plans. President MacRae announced approval of the following Section officers for 1961:

	Chairman	Vice-Chairman	Secy-Treasurer
New England—	Carlyle Roberts	Everett Fullam	Ramsey Michaels and William Lane
Eastern—	Alfred Black	Robert Knudsen	Claude Ries and Cornelius Van Til
Southern—	Glen Atkins	Alfred Cierpke	Robert Picirilli
Mid-Western—	Samuel Schultz	John Whitcomb	John Wenger
Far-Western	John Dunkin	Kenneth Monroe	Kenneth Daniels

The Necrology Committee reported no known deaths, among those associated with E.T.S. during the year 1960 (Note: Memorial, p. 41, added later)

Steven Barabas, E.T.S.'s editor, presented the report of the Editorial Committee, noting the successful publication during 1960 of the four quarterly issues of the BULLETIN OF THE E.T.S., within the budgeted figure of $280. each. In accordance with the action taken by the Society at its last annual meeting, he submitted the following statement of policy, used in making selections for the E.T.S. monograph series: (1) commitment to the E.T.S. doctrinal affirmation of Biblical inerrancy; (2) scholarly worth; (3) consideration for specialized studies, whose limited appeal makes for hesitation on the part of publishers; (4) controversial subject matter, upon which E.T.S. members may be in disagreement (e.g., millennialism), should not hinder Society sponsorship of otherwise worthy studies; (5) inexpensive, paper-back publication for less-than-book-length studies. The editor explained the Committee's not having released an additional volume in the Monograph Series during 1960, as arising out of its hesitancy to sponsor works such as Kenneth Wolf's grammar of Biblical Aramaic, without first consulting the Society as a whole. While requesting to be released from the editorship in 1961, he encouraged members to submit their manuscripts, both for the BULLETIN and for the Monograph Series, to the new editor, while urging greater care in their checking for errors, both typographical and otherwise. The report was received; and though specific action was not taken, the Society's discussion was committed to the attention of the 1961 Editorial Committee. From Neil Winegarden, as managing editor of the BULLETIN, came word that in line with instructions from last year's annual meeting introductory copies of the BULLETIN had been distributed to approximately 100 theological libraries, not previously on our subscription list. These included 15 schools of our evangelical Negro brethren. The secretary reported that his contacts with the latter group had elicited only limited response ;and he encouraged personal efforts, on the part of all who had opportunity, to interest these friends in E.T.S. Almost half of the libraries contacted, however, had ordered subscriptions, which constitutes a most encouraging sign of a greater outreach on the part of evangelical scholarship. President MacRae announced the Executive Committee's appointment of John E. Luchies as editor for 1961 and the re-appointment of Neil Winegarden as managing editor. The Society extended a rising vote of thanks to Steven Barabas, whose three faithful years as editor had launched the BULLETIN in 1958 and guided its growth up to the present time, and also to Alfred Cierpke, whose health compels him to give up his office, after two years of able service as treasurer, 1959 and 1960.

E.T.S. then turned to the consideration of the report on the promotion of its work during the next five years, 1961-1965. Commendation was voted to the committee, consisting of Gordon Clark, Burton Goddard, Barton Payne, Delbert Rose, and Henry Van Til, for their detailed study and recommendations (see below). The Executive Committee reported its action for the implementation of the following sections: #3, authorized expenditure for the 1961 BULLETIN, raised from $280. to $400. per issue; #4, publication of a monograph authorized for 1961; #6, appointment of a book review editor declined, because of the willingness of the new editor to assume responsibility for book-coverage; #8, subsidy for papers declined, but a solicitation of papers (in addition to volunteered papers) recommended to the new Program Committee, in consultation with the Editorial Committee, and greater participation in the meetings urged upon all E.T.S. members; #10, the annual allowance for the expenses of each regional Section raised from $25. to a maximum of $50. No specific action was proposed for the other recommendations, though each was commended to the attention of the officer and/or committee involved. After discussion, the Society voted its entire approval upon the actions of the Executive Committee in respect to the Promotion Committee's report and expressed anticipation over the achievement of the goals outlined. Their pursuit may well mean the dawning of a new era of effectiveness, both for E.T.S. and for evangelical scholarship as a whole.

Gilbert Johnson presented the report of the Nominating Committee, proposing the following candidates for office:

President: R. Laird Harris (incumbent vice-president)

Vice-president: Ralph Earle

Secretary: J. Barton Payne (incumbent).

Treasurer: Earl S. Kalland

Executive Committee, term 1961-64: Allan A. MacRae (retiring President)

Editorial Committee, term 1961-64: John Rea

Membership Committee, terms 1961-63: George E. Ladd, Henry R. Van Til

Committee on Program & Arrangements, term 1961-62: Stanley E. Anderson

The report was received and President MacRae called for further nominations from the floor. There were none. It was then moved and carried that the nominations be closed and the above slate be elected. Earle Ellis next presented the report on the Resolutions Committee, expressing appreciation to the officers and committee members of E.T.S. for their labors during the past year; to each person who took part in the present sessions and thus contributed to the success of the 12th annual meeting, now drawing to a close; and to the administration and faculty of Gordon College and Divinity School, especially to Dean Goddard, for all the types of arrangements made and courtesies extended to us. The report was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted. There being no further matters presented, the business session was adjourned. The program continued according to the docket and concluded with James Yerkes' devotional message, embodying selections from Isaiah, exhorting us to a more consecrated service, and committing us all to the care of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
J. BARTON PAYNE, Secretary

D. THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE PROMOTION OF THE WORK OF E.T.S., 1961-65

The Committee recommends:

THAT THE SOCIETY IMPROVE ITS WORK OF PUBLICATION

1. The president, and the Society as a whole, make a special effort to encourage the members to scholarly written production, including our younger and less known men.

2. Upon the recommendation of the Editorial Committee, the regional Sections, or interested individuals, the Executive Committee schedule small discussion sessions (4 or 5 carefully screened men) on a restricted topic (as the date of the exodus, or Barth), for several days adjacent to the annual meeting, among those actually engaged in writing (with partially completed MSS), to assist each other's work, with expenses subsidized.

3. The Editorial Committee seek out good symposia (perhaps arising out of proposal #2), to be published as a thick edition from time to time in the quarterly BULLETIN.

4. The Editorial Committee solicit and publish if possible at least one significant monograph or symposium a year for the next five years, to be published as a separate volume in paper-back if under 100 pages.

5. The Editorial Committee commit itself to a more rigorous work of self-appraisal (particularly in the light of proposal #4) on Society publications. We must not publish, just for the sake of being in print.

6. The Executive Committee appoint a book-review editor and committee to prepare a book section in each quarterly BULLETIN.

THAT THE SOCIETY PLAN FOR MORE EFFECTIVE MEETINGS

7. The Society meet in even-numbered years in the New York area and in odd-numbered years in the Chicago area.

8. The Program Committee seek out the highest caliber leadership for the annual meetings and subsidize the travel of those presenting solicited papers of a high scholarly order (not of those volunteering papers).

9. The Program Committee schedule more panels by competent members.

10. The Executive Committee encourage the Section meetings by increasing the present annual allowance of $25.

11. Upon recommendation of the Sections or upon its own initiative, the Executive Committee investigate and establish additional sections in unserved but promising areas (for example, a southwestern section in Texas).

THAT THE SOCIETY DEVOTE GREATER ATTENTION TO THE PERSONNEL IN ITS ASSOCIATION

12. The Membership Committee make every effort to treble the present 566 members, associates, and students in the next five years (following the pattern of S.B.L.E. in its attempt to underwrite the cost of the JBL).

13. Each member canvass his own associates and acquaintances, to enlist those who agree with our fundamental principles and scholarly aims.

14. Each member submit two names of those he would recommend, for the Membership Committee to check and contact.

15. The Membership Committee appoint a sub-committee to contact the presidents and deans of evangelical seminaries, colleges, and institutes for enlisting their faculty members.

16. The Membership Committee appoint a sub-committee to bring participation as associates to the attention of ministers at the annual meetings of evangelical bodies.

17. The Executive Committee appoint a committee of appropriate members, each to assume responsibility for contacting conservative groups that have not yet been touched by E.T.S. (such as the Church of God, Anderson, Ind.; Mennonite bodies; Negro denominations) with news items and articles for the periodicals of these denominations, that would indirectly solicit the interest of their scholarly-minded men.

18. The Executive Committee appoint a committee of three, to furnish information, and to write informal articles, for interdenominational and denominational (conservative) papers and quarterlies. The former would include Christian Life, Christianity Today, The Herald, Moody Monthly, U.E.A., possibly The Christian Herald, etc.; the latter, the denominational papers of the N.A.E. constituency, the Asbury Seminary, The Gordon Review, The Preacher's Magazine, etc.

19. The Membership Committee appoint a sub-committee to enlist on each evangelical campus a representative to encourage the securing of student associates, who would benefit by participation in E.T.S. and be encouraged to continue in training for evangelical scholarship.

20. The Membership Committee exercise caution on receiving new members, being careful not to "load up" with poor scholars or shaky evangelicals.

21. The Membership Committee investigate the force with which our members hold to our doctrinal platform, maintaining vigilance to recommend at each annual meeting the names they feel should be dropped, in accordance with Art. IV, Sec. 4, of the Constitution, which has never been invoked.

22. Both the Membership Committee and the Program Committee take measures to guard against the liberalizing of our whole framework on the front of infallibility of Scripture.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF MEETINGS

I. Joint Meeting with the American Scientific Affiliation

The 4th biennial joint meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society and the American Scientific Affiliation will be held at Goshen College, Goshen, Ind., June 14-16, 1961. The conference theme will be, "The Future of Theology and Science," as evangelical Christians seek to move beyond mere defensive measures and to seize the initiative, in the relationships of science and Scripture, by anticipating the trends foreseeable in the next 25 years. Start planning now to attend these significant sessions, the detailed program of which is announced elsewhere in this issue. For further information write Dr. Merrill C. Tenney, chairman of the joint E.T.S.-A.S.A. committee, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill.

II. Section Meetings

The ninth annual meeting of the Southern Section of the Evangelical Theological Society was held at Southeastern Bible College, Birmingham, Ala. April 7-8, 1961.

The sixth general meeting of the Mid-Western Section is scheduled for May 12-13, 1961 at Grace Theological Seminary, Winona Lake, Ind. This is our first visit to Grace since 1955; and all who can come are urged to make reservations with the chairman, Dr. Samuel J. Schultz, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill.

The eighth meeting of the Far-Western Section has been called for May 5, 1961, at Grace Theological Seminary, Pasadena, Calif. Chm. Kenneth Monroe asks that program contributions and requests for accommodations be sent to the vice-chairman, Dr. David A. Hubbard, Westmont College, 955 La Paz Road, Santa Barbara, Calif.

The 8th meeting of the New England Section and the 2nd meeting of the Eastern Section will be held in the late fall. For further announcement, see the Summer BULLETIN.

Every person associated with E.T.S. is automatically a member of the section geographically accessible to him. You are therefore encouraged to submit the title of a paper to be read, or to come and share in the discussions and fellowship, by filling in the attached form and mailing it to the appropriate section officer.
