

Letter from the Program Chair

Welcome to the 70th Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society

Over the last few years there has been a renewed discussion in evangelical circles about the nature of God, particularly as our Triune Lord. Thus, it is fitting that the theme of the 70th meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society is “Holy Spirit.” While questions about the person and work of the Holy Spirit have certainly occasioned much debate amongst Christians over the years, it is our hope that this theme might also provide an opportunity to remember what unites us. After all, the apostle Paul reminds us, “There is one body and one Spirit···one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and father of all” (Eph 4:4-6).

Given the potential breadth of this year’s theme, the meeting has been designed to explore the Holy Spirit from multiple angles. Most naturally, of course, this theme will be studied from a theological perspective. But, we hope it will also be studied from a historical/ecclesiastical perspective, as well as from an exegetical/biblical one. All three together will enrich our appreciation and understanding of this vital topic.

The plenary speakers have been chosen to reflect each of these perspectives on the theme. Addressing the Holy Spirit theologically is Michael Horton, J. Gresham Machen Professor of Systematic Theology and Apologetics at Westminster Seminary in California, and author of numerous theological works including Rediscovering the Holy Spirit (2017). Addressing the Holy Spirit historically is Michael Haykin, Professor of Church History and Biblical Spirituality at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and author of numerous works in church history including Empire of the Holy Spirit (2010). Addressing the Holy Spirit exegetically is Craig Keener, the F.M. and Ada Thompson Professor of Biblical Studies at Asbury Theological Seminary, and author of numerous commentaries including the massive four-volume series on Acts with Baker Academic (2012-2015).

Of course, as always, the conference will include several hundred papers on other important topics beyond the main theme. We trust you will enjoy these papers as well as the deep conversations and rich fellowship that will hopefully follow.

Let me also ask you to join me in thanking all those who labored to make this conference possible, especially the Executive Committee, program committees, and other volunteers. A special thanks should also go to the Executive Director, Michael Thigpen, and the Meeting Planner, Bonnie Thigpen, for their tireless efforts to plan and execute this conference.

Look forward to seeing you in Denver!

Sincerely,
Michael J. Kruger

Parallel sessions

The parallel sessions are composed of five different session types.

P Program Unit Sessions

are a combination of invited papers and proposed presentations which were selected by the program unit steering committees. ETS has three types of program units. Consultations are new program units which are responsible for one session of invited papers at the meeting. Study Groups are narrowly focused groups which require active, collaborative participation by the group members. ETS encourages study groups to publish the results of their work. Study groups are responsible for one session of invited papers at the annual meeting. Sections are broadly defined groups that represent general areas of interest. Responsible for one session of invited papers and one session of papers drawn from member submissions, the sections offer the most access for unsolicited papers.

A Affiliated Society Sessions

feature presentations that were selected and arranged by one of the three societies which join ETS each year: the Evangelical Philosophical Society, the Near East Archaeological Society, and the Adventist Theological Society.

D Discipline Specific Sessions

are composed of presentations that were submitted by ETS members and rated by a panel of scholars who served under the direction of the program chair. These presentations have been grouped into basic disciplines: Old Testament, New Testament, Systematic Theology, Church History/Historical Theology, and Practical Theology.

T Theme Sessions

are composed of presentations submitted by members, which address the conference theme. These presentations were evaluated by a panel of scholars under the direction of the program chair. The theme presentations have been arranged into cohesive sessions based on texts, topics, and methods.

C Career Sessions

are special sessions that are designed to help ETS members in their careers. These sessions include discussions of the academic job market, publishing, interviewing, and other significant career development topics.

David S. Dockery, President
Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and Trinity International University
President of the ETS, 2018

Trinity is pleased to announce the release of Christian Higher Education: Faith, Teaching, and Learning in the Evangelical Tradition, edited by David S. Dockery and Christopher W. Morgan and published by Crossway. This collection of essays by leading scholars explains the foundational beliefs about God, knowledge, and humanity that underlie Christian higher education, and demonstrates how the Christian tradition shapes approaches to teaching, learning, scholarship, and practice. This resource will equip Christian teachers and students to more effectively engage the broader culture and lead both church and society, for the good of the world and the glory of God.

NEW FROM RICHARD GAMBLE

"The fruit of decades of scholarship, teaching, preaching, fellowship, and life in Christ, this continuation of Professor Gamble's survey of God's mighty acts is impressive. The author provides amazing and sweeping vistas of the forest without neglecting the trees. This volume will reward patient reading and rereading."

—MICHAEL S. HORTON

A comprehensive theological tool—combining biblical, systematic, and historical theology—that surveys the entire New Testament with themed discussions and a focus on God's revelation and exaltation in Christ.

978-1-59638-181-0 | 6" x 9" | Cloth | 1144 Pages | $59.99

NEW SERIES

"When I was beginning my studies of theology and philosophy during the 1950s and '60s, I profited enormously from P&R's Modern Thinkers Series. Today, P&R is resuming and updating the series, now called Great Thinkers. Written by scholars who are experts on these writers. . . I look forward to the release of all the books being planned and to the good influence they will have on the next generation of philosophers and theologians."

—JOHN M. FRAME

Writing from a Reformed perspective, the series's authors identify the most influential cultural features of each great thinker and the most apologetically effective ways to address these.

978-1-62995-221-5 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 192 Pages | $14.99

NEW ESL TEXTBOOK

"A most welcome one-of-a-kind volume, Theological English offers a compelling introduction to theology, while effectively building the reader's mastery of the English language. Though the book is marvelously useful for non-native English speakers, any budding student of theology will significantly profit from the language skills absorbed along this reverent theological pilgrimage. Tolle lege!"

—DAVID B. GARNER

Prepares non-native English speakers to study theology in English at an advanced level. Lessons cover the major theological genres, and practical exercises develop reading, listening, speaking, and writing skills.

Why Beeson?

Beeson Divinity School is unique in the field of theological education. With a world-class faculty, Beeson is confessional yet interdenominational, evangelical yet ecumenical, and committed to the historic, orthodox Christian faith. This rich core of our common commitments form the basis of our unity as a theological community centered in Jesus Christ. We also believe in and practice incarnational theological education for incarnational gospel ministry. As John writes, "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14). If God the creator of the universe was willing and saw it fit to take on flesh, we see great reasons to live life together within a community of faith and learning.
