from the creators of the Pictorial Library of Bible Lands

The Photo Companion to the Bible is a unique digital resource that illustrates the biblical text with modern and historic photographs of ancient sites, museum artifacts, and cultural scenes. This PowerPoint-based collection goes verse by verse through each Bible book, providing beautiful photographs, descriptive text, and explanatory notes to enhance Bible study and teaching.

“Through this spectacular set of photographs formatted as Powerpoint slides, which take us back in time and space to the Early Iron Age in Israel, the characters in the book of Ruth and their activities come to life. I wish I had had this amazing resource when I was writing my commentary.”

DANIEL I. BLOCK, Gunther H. Knodler Professor Emeritus of Old Testament, Wheaton College Graduate School

“I have been looking for this sort of extraordinary resource for years. I don’t know of any other photo resource for Acts currently on this level. This collection will transform the way I teach Acts in the classroom, and it’s useful for my own thinking as I work again through the text.”

CRAIG S. KEENER, F. M. and Ada Thompson Professor of Biblical Studies, Asbury Theological Seminary

GENESIS

THE CREATION OF THE WORLD

1 In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.
 2 The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.
 3 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.
 4 And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness.
 5 God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.
 6 And God said, "Let there be an expanse¹ in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

 13 And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.
 14 And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons,⁶ and for days and years,
 15 "and let them be lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth." And it was so.
 16 And God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars.
 17 And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth,

An Introduction to the Greek New Testament, Produced at Tyndale House, Cambridge

Dirk Jongkind

Paperback, 978-1-4335-6409-3
~~$14.99~~ $5

The Reader's Edition includes a running list of glosses of every word that occurs 25 times or less in the Greek New Testament. Those with limited knowledge of Greek can smoothly read the Greek text without needing to constantly refer to other reference resources—accelerating their facility with the Greek text and making their time more rewarding and more enjoyable as they read the very word of God.

This short book provides crucial information about the Tyndale House Edition in particular and the Greek New Testament in general, answering questions such as “What is a textual apparatus and why is one needed?” and “Is the New Testament reliable?”

“But what about the apocrypha?”

People today have honest questions about how we got the Bible.

The Phoenix Seminary Text & Canon Institute, directed by John Meade and Peter Gurry, was founded to encourage a better understanding of the history of the canon and the text of the Bible through church conferences, pastoral resources, academic colloquia, and publications.

Our new TCI Fellowship is a one-year scholarship and mentoring program that provides up to $10,000 for a ThM student who intends to pursue doctoral study in textual criticism, canon formation, or a related field

THE HOLY TRINITY

ROBERT LETHAM

978-1-62995-377-9 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 704 Pages | $29.99

"Robert Letham's second edition is to be welcomed as a sound guide to biblical, historical, theological aspects of Trinitarian doctrine and as a guide to contributions, dangers, and deviations in contemporary discussions of the Trinity."

—VERN POYTHRESS, Professor of New Testament and Biblical Interpretation, Westminster Theological Seminary

CHRIST AND THE KINGDOMS OF MEN

DAVID C. INNES

978-1-62995-594-0 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 264 Pages | $19.99

"David Innes's new contribution to clear thinking about politics includes dramatic quotations that show our sinful nature, including one from serial killer Carl Panzram: 'I wish the entire human race had one neck and I had my hands around it!' Some on the right express a similar sentiment about federal officials, but Dr. Innes is far wiser than they, and also wiser than those on the left such as former Rep. Barney Frank, quoted within as saying, 'Government is simply the name we give to the things we choose to do together.' Christ and the Kingdoms of Men shows that we have many ways to do things together: all who read it will learn which activities should involve government, and which should not."

—MARVIN OLASKY, Editor in Chief, World magazine

JAZZ, BLUES, AND SPIRITUALS

HANS ROOKMAAKER

978-1-62995-673-2 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 240 Pages | $19.99

"This book shows Hans Rookmaaker's profound respect for black music from Africa through work songs, spirituals, blues, jazz, and early gospel. What is fascinating is that this is not simply a history book, but that it includes Dr. Rookmaaker's pithy evaluation of each era, each player, and the spirit of the art."

—JAMES WARD, Recording Artist, Singer-Songwriter

DAVID HUME

JAMES N. ANDERSON

978-1-62995-279-6 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 160 Pages | $14.99

"The skepticism of David Hume has frightened many who have sought to follow Christ. But James Anderson's book shows that it is the followers of Hume who should be frightened. Anderson presents an account of Hume that is accurate and comprehensive, yet concise. It is easy to follow. And it shows clearly where Hume went wrong, and how his errors illumine the biblical alternative. Hume fell into skepticism because he failed to think God's thoughts after him."

—JOHN M. FRAME, Professor of Systematic Theology and Philosophy Emeritus, Reformed Theological Seminary, Orlando
