

Letter from the Program Chair

Welcome to the 71st Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society

The theme for this year's conference, "Christ in All Scripture," reminds us that our Lord Jesus Christ is the heart and climax of biblical revelation, as well as the focus of our faith. While evangelical scholars all affirm that Scripture as a whole testifies to Jesus (as noted in, e.g., Luke 24:44-47; John 5:39; Acts 3:18-24; 10:43; Rom 3:21), we approach that affirmation from diverse angles. Perhaps the greatest diversity comes in how we hear the Old Testament's witness to Jesus, while remaining sensitive to the various documents' genres and ancient settings. Our diverse perspectives can be in tension but can often be complementary.

This year's program will highlight three of the evangelical approaches to recognizing our Lord's presence throughout Scripture. This year's plenary speakers are:

Steve Wellum, Professor of Christian Theology at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; his publications include (with Trent Hunter) Christ from Beginning to End: How the Full Story of Scripture Reveals the Full Glory of Christ.

Jeannine K. Brown, Professor of New Testament at Bethel Seminary; her publications include Scripture as Communication: Introducing Biblical Hermeneutics.

Gregory K. Beale, J. Gresham Machen Research Professor of New Testament and Biblical Interpretation at Westminster Theological Seminary; his publications include A New Testament Biblical Theology: The Unfolding of the Old Testament in the New.

The program will include hundreds of other valuable papers on this and other topics. In addition to stimulating one another in our academic discussions, across our various traditions and backgrounds, we also look forward to the personal engagement and spiritual fellowship that is a normal part of our experience at these meetings.

As always, gratitude is appropriate for our Executive Committee, our hard-working program committees, the many volunteers whose contributions make each annual meeting successful, and those who serve us at our venue. Special gratitude is in place for our Executive Director, Michael Thigpen, and the Meeting Planner, Bonnie Thigpen, for their faithful and diligent service. Those on the Executive Committee can attest their thorough work and our dependence on them.

We look forward to seeing you and enjoying pleasant November weather in San Diego!

Blessings,

Craig S. Keener

Parallel sessions

The parallel sessions are composed of five different session types.

P Program Unit Sessions

are a combination of invited papers and proposed presentations which were selected by the program unit steering committees. ETS has three types of program units: Consultations, Study Groups, and Sections. Consultations are new program units which are responsible for one session of invited papers at the annual meeting. Study Groups are narrowly focused groups which require active, collaborative participation by the group members. ETS encourages Study Groups to publish the results of their work. Study groups are responsible for one session of invited papers at the annual meeting. Sections are broadly defined groups that represent general areas of interest. Responsible for one session of invited papers and one session of papers drawn from member submissions, the Sections offer the most access for unsolicited papers.

A Affiliated Society Sessions

feature presentations that were selected and arranged by one of the three societies which join ETS each year: the Evangelical Philosophical Society, the Near East Archaeological Society, and the Adventist Theological Society.

D Discipline Specific Sessions

are composed of presentations that were submitted by ETS members and rated by a panel of scholars who served under the direction of the program chair. These presentations have been grouped into basic disciplines: Old Testament, New Testament, Systematic Theology, Church History/Historical Theology, and Practical Theology.

T Theme Sessions

are composed of presentations submitted by members, which address the conference theme. These presentations were evaluated by a panel of scholars under the direction of the program chair. The theme presentations have been arranged into cohesive sessions based on texts, topics, and methods.

from the creators of the Pictorial Library of Bible Lands

The Photo Companion to the Bible is a unique digital resource that illustrates the biblical text with modern and historic photographs of ancient sites, museum artifacts, and cultural scenes. This PowerPoint-based collection goes verse by verse through each Bible book, providing beautiful photographs, descriptive text, and explanatory notes to enhance Bible study and teaching.

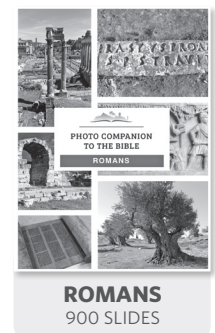

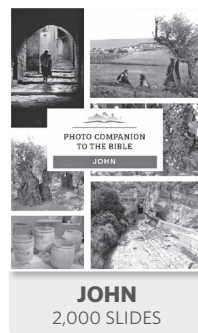

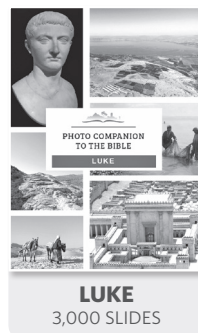

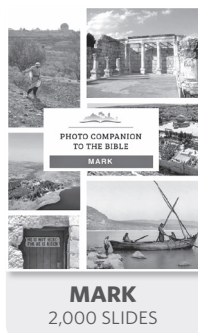

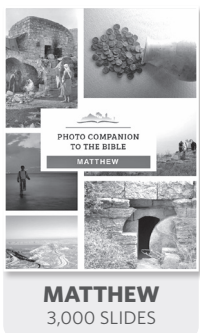

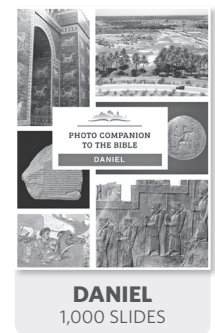

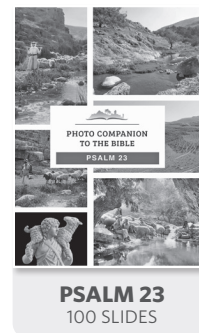

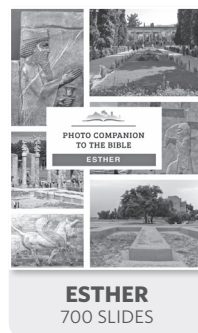

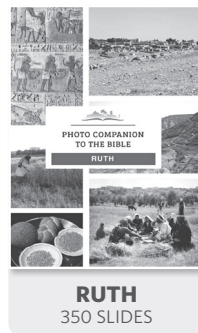

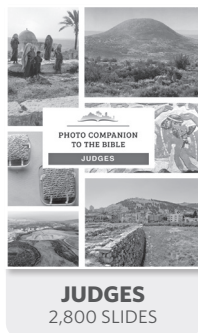

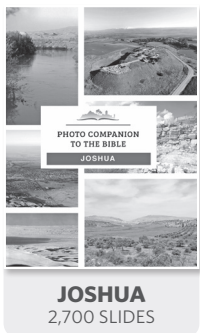

“Through this spectacular set of photographs formatted as Powerpoint slides, which take us back in time and space to the Early Iron Age in Israel, the characters in the book of Ruth and their activities come to life. I wish I had had this amazing resource when I was writing my commentary.”

DANIEL I. BLOCK, Gunther H. Knoedler Professor Emeritus of Old Testament, Wheaton College Graduate School

“I have been looking for this sort of extraordinary resource for years. I don't know of any other photo resource for Acts currently on this level. This collection will transform the way I teach Acts in the classroom, and it's useful for my own thinking as I work again through the text.”

CRAIG S. KEENER, F. M. and Ada Thompson Professor of Biblical Studies, Asbury Theological Seminary

GENESIS

THE CREATION OF THE WORLD

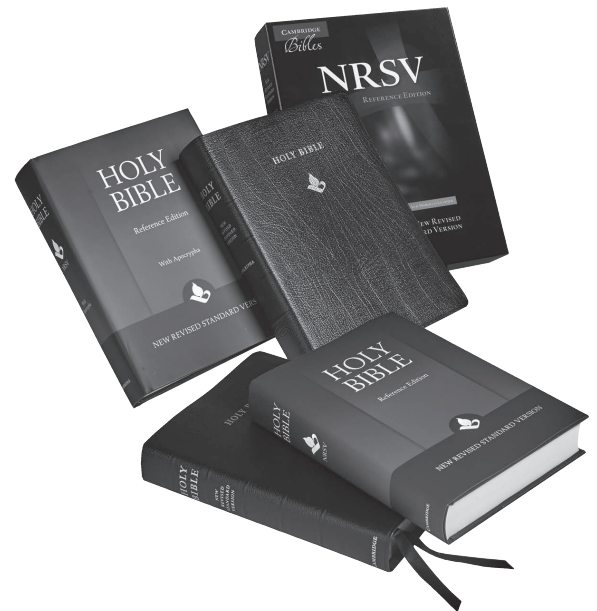

1 In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth.
 2 The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.
 3 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.
 4 And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness.
 5 God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.
 6 And God said, "Let there be an expanse¹ in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

 13 And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.
 14 And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons,⁶ and for days and years,
 15 "and let them be lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth." And it was so.
 16 And God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars.
 17 And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth,

An Introduction to the Greek New Testament, Produced at Tyndale House, Cambridge

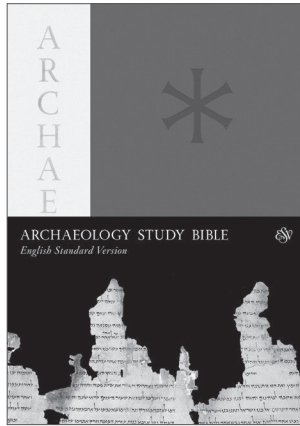

Dirk Jongkind

Paperback, 978-1-4335-6409-3
~~$14.99~~ $5

The Reader's Edition includes a running list of glosses of every word that occurs 25 times or less in the Greek New Testament. Those with limited knowledge of Greek can smoothly read the Greek text without needing to constantly refer to other reference resources—accelerating their facility with the Greek text and making their time more rewarding and more enjoyable as they read the very word of God.

This short book provides crucial information about the Tyndale House Edition in particular and the Greek New Testament in general, answering questions such as “What is a textual apparatus and why is one needed?” and “Is the New Testament reliable?”

“But what about the apocrypha?”

People today have honest questions about how we got the Bible.

The Phoenix Seminary Text & Canon Institute, directed by John Meade and Peter Gurry, was founded to encourage a better understanding of the history of the canon and the text of the Bible through church conferences, pastoral resources, academic colloquia, and publications.

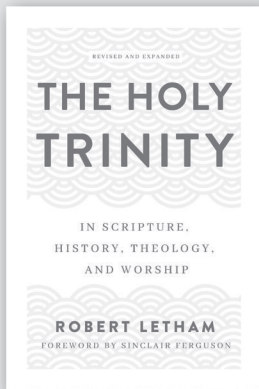

Our new TCI Fellowship is a one-year scholarship and mentoring program that provides up to $10,000 for a ThM student who intends to pursue doctoral study in textual criticism, canon formation, or a related field

THE HOLY TRINITY

ROBERT LETHAM

978-1-62995-377-9 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 704 Pages | $29.99

"Robert Letham's second edition is to be welcomed as a sound guide to biblical, historical, theological aspects of Trinitarian doctrine and as a guide to contributions, dangers, and deviations in contemporary discussions of the Trinity."

—VERN POYTHRESS, Professor of New Testament and Biblical Interpretation, Westminster Theological Seminary

CHRIST AND THE KINGDOMS OF MEN

DAVID C. INNES

978-1-62995-594-0 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 264 Pages | $19.99

"David Innes's new contribution to clear thinking about politics includes dramatic quotations that show our sinful nature, including one from serial killer Carl Panzram: 'I wish the entire human race had one neck and I had my hands around it!' Some on the right express a similar sentiment about federal officials, but Dr. Innes is far wiser than they, and also wiser than those on the left such as former Rep. Barney Frank, quoted within as saying, 'Government is simply the name we give to the things we choose to do together.' Christ and the Kingdoms of Men shows that we have many ways to do things together: all who read it will learn which activities should involve government, and which should not."

JAZZ, BLUES, AND SPIRITUALS

HANS ROOKMAAKER

978-1-62995-673-2 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 240 Pages | $19.99

"This book shows Hans Rookmaaker's profound respect for black music from Africa through work songs, spirituals, blues, jazz, and early gospel. What is fascinating is that this is not simply a history book, but that it includes Dr. Rookmaaker's pithy evaluation of each era, each player, and the spirit of the art."

—JAMES WARD, Recording Artist, Singer-Songwriter

DAVID HUME

JAMES N. ANDERSON

978-1-62995-279-6 | 6" x 9" | Paper | 160 Pages | $14.99

"The skepticism of David Hume has frightened many who have sought to follow Christ. But James Anderson's book shows that it is the followers of Hume who should be frightened. Anderson presents an account of Hume that is accurate and comprehensive, yet concise. It is easy to follow. And it shows clearly where Hume went wrong, and how his errors illumine the biblical alternative. Hume fell into skepticism because he failed to think God's thoughts after him."
