

Welcome to the 72nd Annual Meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society

I am very pleased to offer a personal welcome to this annual meeting. Our theme, “Christianity and Islam,” could scarcely be more relevant and urgent. The Christian encounter with Islam can now be traced through a millennium and a half of engagement. As evangelical scholars, our responsibility is to be ever faithful to Christ and ever more truthful in our commitment to the gospel. We are also called to truth, and to understanding the world around us more accurately and thoughtfully. That certainly includes our understanding of Islam, which has from the beginning represented an enormous challenge to Christian evangelism, apologetics, theology, and cultural engagement.

Three evangelical scholars will help us in this task through plenary addresses:

Ayman S. Ibrahim, Bill and Connie Jenkins Associate Professor of Islamic Studies and Director of the Jenkins Center for the Christian Understanding of Islam at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, will speak on The Authority and Function of the Quran in Islam.

Timothy C. Tennett, President and Professor of World Christianity at Asbury Theological Seminary, will speak on Through the Prism: The Trinity and the Islamic Metanarrative.

Thomas S. Kidd, Distinguished Professor of History, James Vardaman Endowed Professor of History, and Associate Director, Institute for Studies of Religion at Baylor University, will speak on American Christians and Islam: From the Colonial Era to the Post-9/11 World.

Another highlight will be the Presidential Address, brought by ETS President Craig S. Kenner, F. M. and Ada Thompson Chair of Biblical Studies at Asbury Theological Seminary who will speak on A Mind for the Body.

I am very thankful for the devoted work of the ETS staff and leadership. As planning for this meeting began, Michael Thigpen was our Executive Director, and we are thankful for his years of commitment and service. Our new Executive Director, Ken Magnuson is providing excellent leadership for a new era. Bonnie Thigpen, our Meeting Planner, is indispensable. Together, they have demonstrated remarkable commitment and skill in a very difficult season.

As always, we look forward to the presentation of hundreds of other papers and the meeting together of evangelical scholars as the Evangelical Theological Society – every word in that name is significant. We are a society, and it distresses us that we cannot be physically together for this annual meeting. We will miss the social dimension of meeting together in one city for several event-filled days. But, I am very thankful for the technology that will enable us to meet together in a different mode. It is no small thing that we are able to hold an annual meeting of the Evangelical Theological Society in the midst of a pandemic. This challenge adds further urgency to our meeting.

I want to encourage you to take full advantage of the ability to participate fully in the meeting by digital means. The work of evangelical scholarship goes on, and so must we. Engage with energy, learn with eagerness, encourage younger scholars, support our sponsors, connect and converse as best you can, and help us make history together. We will not meet together in Providence, Rhode Island this year, but we will be meeting by the gracious providence of God. For that, we are thankful.

Sincerely,

R. Albert Mohler, Jr.

ETS President-Elect and Program Chair

President and Professor of Christian Theology

The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

Virtual Annual Meeting Details

The 2020 ETS Annual Meeting will be held November 16-20, with pre-recorded paper presentations available for viewing beginning Monday, November 9th. Watch the presentations at your convenience and then join the live sessions starting on Monday, November 16th. There are 2 types of live sessions: full length sessions, as well as shorter Q&A sessions for the pre-recorded papers. All of the live portions of the conference will be recorded and available for viewing after the meeting has ended.

Conference Registration

Registration is available at www.etsjets.org/registration\_landing. If you need assistance or have questions about conference registration, please email meeting@etsjets.org.

Parallel sessions

The parallel sessions are composed of five different session types.

P Program Unit Sessions

are a combination of invited papers and proposed presentations which were selected by the program unit steering committees. ETS has three types of program units: Consultations, Study Groups, and Sections. Consultations are new program units which are responsible for one session of invited papers at the annual meeting. Study Groups are narrowly focused groups which require active, collaborative participation by the group members. ETS encourages Study Groups to publish the results of their work. Study groups are responsible for one session of invited papers at the annual meeting. Sections are broadly defined groups that represent general areas of interest. Responsible for one session of invited papers and one session of papers drawn from member submissions, the Sections offer the most access for unsolicited papers.

A Affiliated Society Sessions

feature presentations that were selected and arranged by one of the three societies which join ETS each year: the Evangelical Philosophical Society, the Near East Archaeological Society, and the Adventist Theological Society.

D Discipline Specific Sessions

are composed of presentations that were submitted by ETS members and rated by a panel of scholars who served under the direction of the program chair. These presentations have been grouped into basic disciplines: Old Testament, New Testament, Systematic Theology, Church History/Historical Theology, and Practical Theology.

T Theme Sessions

are composed of presentations submitted by members, which address the conference theme. These presentations were evaluated by a panel of scholars under the direction of the program chair. The theme presentations have been arranged into cohesive sessions based on texts, topics, and methods.

The Greek New Testament is priceless in its value as it is how God has given us his revelation of the gospel and of Jesus Christ. The Greek New Testament, Produced at Tyndale House, Cambridge was created under the oversight of editors Dr. Dirk Jongkind and Dr. Peter Williams. Together with their team, they have taken a rigorously philological approach to reevaluating the standard text—reexamining spelling and paragraph decisions as well as allowing more recent discoveries related to scribal habits to inform editorial decisions. Ideal for students, scholars, and pastors alike, The Greek New Testament is a groundbreaking contribution to biblical scholarship.

“A first-rate edition of the New Testament text, behind which stands an extraordinary amount of work on the earliest Greek manuscripts. A volume that all New Testament scholars will want to have on hand.”

Fellow and Director of Studies in Theology, Fitzwilliam College

Reception, Resistance, and Transformation

Lisa M. Bowens

"Lisa Bowens has offered us an illuminating historical survey of various ways in which African American interpreters have engaged in vigorous, spirit-led readings of Paul's letters. She demonstrates that many of their writings have countered oppressive readings by white interpreters who, tragically, buttressed violent practices of racism and slavery by pointing to Pauline prooftexts. By recovering the voices of these African American witnesses, Bowens helps us see that a hermeneutics of trust can be—and has been—a hermeneutics of liberation."

Joshua W. Jipp

978-0-8028-7717-8 | Jacketed Hardcover | 480 pages

~~$50.00~~ SALE $30.00

"Fantastically productive. 'Jesus is the Christ' is the core gospel confession. Yet how should it shape our theology and behavior? By a thematic reading of the New Testament that is creative yet faithful, Joshua Jipp shows that Jesus's messianic identity is theologically generative and integrative in surprising ways. An important scholarly synthesis that feeds the mind, stirs the theological imagination, and encourages transformation into the king's pattern of life."

“Those of us who teach Bible survey courses often lament the lack of Old and New Testament introductions that teach students how to read the text rather than simply learn about the text’s origins and themes. Campbell and Pennington have produced a New Testament introduction that is at once informative about basic background issues and at the same time a hermeneutical, theological, and canonical primer on how to read Holy Scripture as a Christian. This should be used in every classroom.”

—MATTHEW Y. EMERSON, Oklahoma Baptist University

“Precious few texts succeed where this one excels—winsomely equipping beginning students of the New Testament with enough resources to understand and respond to its message without burying them with information. It will quickly become a standard choice for both novice and veteran educators.

I enthusiastically recommend it!”

from the creators of the Pictorial Library of Bible Lands

The Photo Companion to the Bible is a unique digital resource that illustrates the biblical text with modern and historic photographs of ancient sites, museum artifacts, and cultural scenes. This PowerPoint-based collection goes verse by verse through each Bible book, providing beautiful photographs, descriptive text, and explanatory notes to enhance Bible study and teaching.

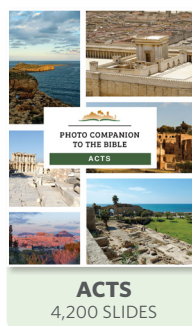

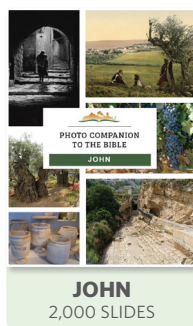

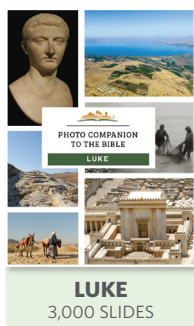

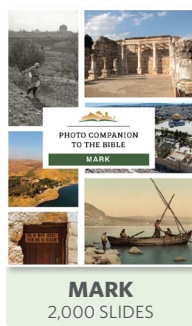

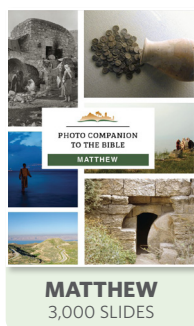

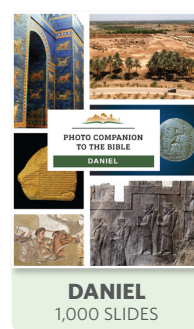

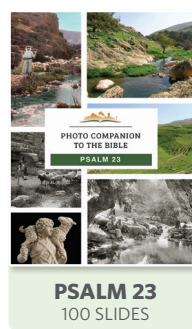

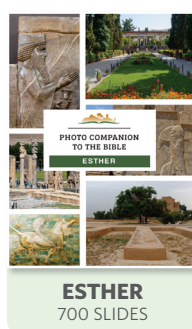

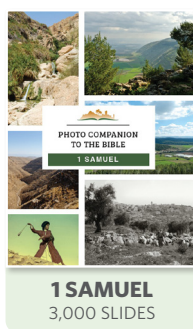

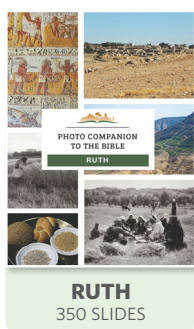

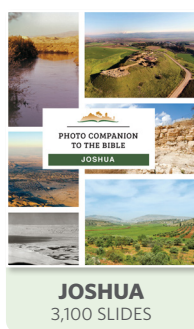

"Through this spectacular set of photographs formatted as PowerPoint slides, which take us back in time and space to the early Iron Age in Israel, the characters in the book of Ruth and their activities come to life. I wish I had had this amazing resource when I was writing my commentary."

DANIEL I. BLOCK, Gunther H. Knodler Professor Emeritus of Old Testament, Wheaton College Graduate School

"I have been looking for this sort of extraordinary resource for years. I don't know of any other photo resource for Acts currently on this level. This collection will transform the way I teach Acts in the classroom, and it's useful for my own thinking as I work again through the text."

CRAIG S. KEENER, F. M. and Ada Thompson Professor of Biblical Studies, Asbury Theological Seminary

BEESON DIVINITY SCHOOL

The professors you study with shape who you become.

At Samford University's Beeson Divinity School, we know that our teachers shape us. This is why we have created an intentionally personal, theological community where students not only learn from faculty in the classroom, but also are mentored by them weekly. In this life-together model, students are purposely shaped for ministry by teachers who are pastors, ministry practitioners, world-renowned scholars and authors of textbooks used in seminaries across the world. Whom do you want to shape you for a lifetime of faithful gospel ministry?
