

ETS / EPS Far West Region Annual Meeting
Friday, March 27, 2026

CALL FOR PAPERS

The faculty and staff of The Master's Seminary are delighted to welcome ETS / EPS members and guests to its campus for the Far West Regional meeting on March 27, 2026.

Our keynote speaker will be Dr. Eckhard Schnabel, Mary F. Rockefeller Emeritus Distinguished Professor of New Testament, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. His extensive research centers on New Testament studies, with particular emphasis on early Christian mission, and the integration of historical, exegetical, and theological approaches to Scripture. Dr. Schnabel will address the historical, literary, and theological focus of apostolic preaching according to the New Testament, which fits well with this year's conference theme, "Evangelism and World Religions."

Paper submissions aligning with the conference theme are preferred. However, abstracts can focus upon other areas of Bible, theology, history, or ministry. The deadline for paper proposal submission is January 23, 2026.
